THE TWENTY-THIRD THAI NATIONAL SPOOFING CHAMPIONSHIP TNC XXIII - 2011

Gentlemen Spoofers.

It gives us great pleasure to extend a very warm welcome on behalf of the Bangkok Gentlemen Spoofers and to say how grateful we are to all who have accepted our invitation to compete in the twenty-third Thai National Spoofing Championship, here in the British Club Bangkok.

The event will take the traditional form of the first round, followed by a repechage, dinner and then the semi-finals and final, to be held after the excellent food and wine. Port will be served after the Final.

Upon arrival at The British Club, the cost of the evening should be signed for on your account. Non-members of The British Club can be signed for by a member. The cost of the evening, all-inclusive, will be approximately 2,000 Thai Baht.

Dress Code, as already advised in the invitations, is Black Tie, Spoofing Blazers, Red Sea Rig or National Costume.

Spoof-off will be at 19:30 p.m., SHARP! Those not present risk relegation to the repechage or even disqualification. Without a doubt they will be heavily fined unless deemed to have a good excuse – last minute sex change, or recuperating from a brain transplant, or “I saw Elvis”, for example. Being stuck in an elevator will not be deemed a valid reason...

Etiquette decrees that three coins of equal size be used in the Championship. Coins should be shown prior to the commencement of Spoofing. The system of play is shown on the following pages.

On behalf of the Bangkok Gentleman Spoofers, may we thank you for your attendance and wish you all the best of luck in the event. The winner will have his name added to the TNC Trophy, mounted in this Bar at the British Club.

“Gentlemen, When The Hands Are Out!”

CONVENTIONS

The first Spoofer out of each game of Spoof will score that game, with the exception of The Final, which will be scored by members and nominees of the Committee.

In the event of two or more Spoofers having the same number of points at the end of a round, then those concerned will continue to Spoof until one Spoofer has won three games. He will then be deemed winner of the school.

The Championship will be conducted in accordance with The Hollywood Rules.

In the event of any dispute, the Chairman will adjudicate. His decision is final and no discussion will be entered into.

In the event of the Chairman being involved in a dispute, past National Champions will be asked to adjudicate.

The Spoofing Championship will include a dinner at the end of which the Semi-Finals and Final will take place.

Any “Impossible Calls” during the Championship will result in the offending Spoofer being fined a bottle of Port, to be enjoyed by all after the Final.

Any Spoofer participating in the Championship improperly dressed will – at the discretion of the Chairman, who must not act unreasonably or vexatiously – be fined a bottle of Port.

Finalists may nominate a Second with whom they may confer.

THE HOLLYWOOD RULES

There are no Rules of Spoofing, but there are a number of Conventions:

1. No impossible calls.
2. No gloating.
3. A new Spoofer cannot be expected to pay for his first ever spoof. The participants should play the round again. (This is not always strictly observed).
4. The call of "Cawood Pass" can only be made, and is only successful, if the winning call has already gone, i.e. it is not successful if it is made by a player calling before the player making the winning call (or if nobody calls correctly).
5. The "Haughton Six" can only be called in a school of three, when the opening caller is holding three, which he reveals at the time of his call (i.e. before the other two call).
6. Spoofing evenings are traditionally held on Tuesday. Other Spoofing evenings (such as on the occasion of a visiting Spoofer from overseas) are termed "Extraordinary Spoofs".
